Bobby Sprowl

Head Coach

University of Alabama • 23rd Season

After leading Shelton State to a third place finish at the Junior College World Series in 2012, head coach Bobby Sprowl enters his 23rd season at the helm of the Buccaneer baseball program.

Sprowl, who was named the 2012 ACCC Coach of the Year, has led the Shelton program to the Junior College World Series in four of the last six seasons. One of the hottest coaches in the state, Sprowl brings his tradition of success to Tuscaloosa. Sprowl is well known for his ability as pitching instructor. Shelton's exciting brand of baseball has drawn national attention over the past few years, including finishing Runner-up in the nation at the coveted Junior College World Series in 2008.

In 2009 Coach Sprowl celebrated another milestone in his career. He was inducted into the Alabama Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame.

Coach Sprowl enjoyed a fine college career at the University of Alabama, recognized as a second team All-American and consensus All-SEC in 1977. His 11.50 strikeouts per nine-inning led the NCAA in 1977. He was honored recently by being named to the Crimson Tide's All-Century Team. After his college career at Alabama, Sprowl enjoyed an eight-year professional baseball career with the Boston Red Sox and the Houston Astros. Sprowl, who was the number two pick of the Boston Red Sox in the June 1977 free agent draft, was a member of the 1978 team that lost a one-game American League Eastern Division playoff to the New York Yankees on Bucky Dent's famous three-run homer over the green monster at Fenway Park. On June 13, 1979, Bobby was traded to the Houston Astros. While a member of the Astros, Sprowl played on two Western Division Championship teams (1980 and 1981). Sprowl has a 30-year-old son, Jon Mark. Bobby is married to former Teresa Gibson, and they have two children, Trevor (19) and Graceson (16).
